SCHOOL SONG

Dear Lucy Simms, Dear Lucy Simms,
You are our fondest hopes and dreams.
May your dear light shed all its beams
On all of us dear Lucy Simms.
We are your sons and daughters true,
We would to you be loyal too.
We will stand firm for all that's right;
We must be worthy in thy sight.

Dear Lucy Simms, Dear Lucy Simms,
Despite what-e'er the years may bring.
We'll raise to thee our lofty hymns
As thy eternal praise we sing.
Let centuries roll on and on,
Sunshine or shadows compass me.
We'll be content before thy throne;
To lift our loyal praise to thee.
